Dec 2022 Town Hall Meeting for Faculty & Staff

12/7/2022

Land Acknowledgment

On behalf of the Seattle College, we acknowledge that we occupy the traditional ancestral lands of the Coast Salish peoples, specifically the Duwamish Tribe—a people that are still here, continuing to honor and bring to light their ancient heritage.

Without them/us, we would not have access to this gathering, dialogue and learning space.

We ask that we take this opportunity to thank the original caretakers of this land who are still here.

Labor Acknowledgement

Today in this Present Moment, we honor the survival, the adaptations, the forced assimilation, and the resilience and creativity of Native peoples – past, present, and future.

We encourage participants to consider their responsibilities to the people and land, both here and elsewhere, and to stand in solidarity with Native, Indigenous, and First Nations People, and their sovereignty, cultural heritage, and lives.

We recognize that enslaved and indentured peoples were forced into unpaid and underpaid labor in the construction of this country, state and city.

To the people who contributed this immeasurable work and their descendants, we acknowledge our/their indelible mark on the space in which we gather today.

It is our collective responsibility to critically interrogate these histories, to repair harm, and to honor, protect, and sustain this land.

• Spring 2022

- Seattle Central announced that four workforce programs would be considered for closure due to budget constraints at the college.
- After further investigation, discussion and community feedback, closure decisions were paused while further solutions for sustainable funding were pursued.

Summer 2022

- Representative Vandana Slatter (48th District), Chair of the House College & Workforce Development Committee, initiated a Workforce Development Program Sustainability Task Force.
- The group was charged with looking at the issues of sustainable funding for workforce programs at Seattle Central College and community colleges statewide.
- Taskforce co-chaired by Representative Frank Chopp (43rd district) and Louise Chernin, Chair of Seattle Colleges Board of Trustees.
- Taskforce brings together members of the state legislature and state board for community and technical colleges, business and industry, philanthropic support, students and program graduates, and college employees to find long-term solutions.
- Initial meeting in July 2022 to focus on 4 programs at Seattle Central as a case study for workforce programs that have unique program costs, more than tuition and state allocation revenues can provide.

Seattle Maritime
Academy:
$700K deficit annually

Wood Technology Center: $850K deficit annually Seattle Culinary
Academy:
$900K deficit annually

Unique equipment needs

Facility and specialized staffing needs

Hands-on instruction in nontraditional classroom environments

These kinds of programs cannot solve their funding issues through increased enrollment or entrepreneurial activities alone.

- Three-Legged Stool
  - Chancellor Rosie Rimando-Chareunsap shared her vision of what she calls the 'three-legged stool':
    - a model of mutual collaboration and support that can sustain workforce education in the state in a longer term, sustainable way.
      - Legislative and policy support
      - Business, industry, and philanthropic support
      - Program review and redesign at the college

• Fall 2022

- Hosted a series of site visits at each program in September 2022.
   Between 30-50 individuals attended each site visit. Questions for discussion at those visits included:
  - What ideas do you have for how the College can engage with the community and recruit students with an emphasis to increase diversity, equity, and inclusion?
  - What connections can or resources can you or your company/organization provide to this program?
  - What legislative or policy changes do you think would be helpful to better sustain this program going forward?
  - What could the College or the program be doing that they currently are not?

Takeaways:

- Legislative and Policy
  - Need for additional funding for workforce education to reflect higher costs than other kinds of community and technical college education (transfer, basic skills)
  - Explore additional ways to authenticate programs as 'High Demand' to unlock additional state funding opportunities
  - Incentivize additional full-time faculty positions where needed
  - Explore ways to credit students for taking industry based-positions/job placement

Business and Industry

- Develop internship, externship, and work-placed learning models to keep students in school while working
- Participate on program Technical Advisory Committees, including having TAC members provide industry mentorship for students
- Funding for student scholarship and program specific needs
- Support for outreach, recruiting, internship, and employment opportunities, especially for BIPOC populations

- Takeaways:
  - College/Program Review and Redesign
    - Short, mid, and long-term business plans for each program
    - Shorter programs, with ladders in and out of industry
    - Increased schedule flexibility:
       evening/weekend/online/hybrid
    - Increasing continuing education/lifelong learning options

Guided Pathways: Subplans are coming!

*NEW* Did you know you can narrow down what you're studying even further? Now, in addition to declaring a degree (such as an Associate of Arts degree or Associate of Science Track 1 or 2 degree), you can also declare your concentration or "subplan", e.g. Psychology or Biology. Right now, this is only for students earning a transfer degree and it won't show up on your transcript, but will help your advisor and faculty ensure you're getting the support and classes that best serve you. Make an appointment or drop-in to advising today to declare your concentration!

Proposal: Adopt a Common Percentage-to-GPA Conversion Chart

CCC+ presenters, Fall 2022 Helena Ribeiro, Erin Steinke

Introductions: Who are we?

We are members of the Equity in Grading working group in Central's Curriculum Coordinating Council (known as CCC+).

What is the Curriculum Coordinating Council (CCC+)?

A representative body that gives voice to faculty

Works to resolve curriculumrelated issues by researching and proposing policy recommendations to the VPI office

An overview of the conversion chart issue

- Central does not have a common chart translating percentage points into GPA (ex. 85% = 3.0 GPA)
- Currently, we use a wide variety of charts
- At focus group listening sessions, students expressed frustration with, and being harmed by, this inconsistency
- Faculty have also raised concerns

"There needs to be uniformity in grade scales. I understand that people want to have individuality, but it's not right that I have to get a 90% for a 4.0 in one class, and a 97% in another." (sample student feedback) from listening sessions during Winter and Spring 2021)

It is not our intention to limit faculty assessment choices, guide faculty grading philosophy, or impede academic freedom.

CBA: 6.9 Academic Freedom and Faculty Rights, pgs. 40-41 (relevant selections):

"Academic freedom implies not only the unconditional freedom of discussion in the classroom, but also the absence of restriction upon the faculty's teaching method...No suspicion concerning either the judgment or the goodwill of the faculty should find any place in our administrative regulations or customary procedures.

B. Academic Freedoms and Faculty Rights:

Classroom Freedom: No restraints other than those required by the nature of the curriculum shall be placed on academic employees regarding the content of their teaching or conduct of their classes...

Freedom of Petition and Silence: Individual academic employees and organizations shall not be denied the right to state or refuse to state their views before any legislative, administrative or faculty body..."

Timeline of our work

Fall 2020

 Discussed approach, researched grading practices, strategies for engaging students, faculty, admin

Winter 2021

 Sourced conversion charts currently in use, gathered feedback from student focus groups

Spring 2021

Gathered faculty input at series of listening sessions

Fall 2021

 Used faculty feedback to narrow conversion chart options, gathered feedback from deans and CCC+

Winter 2022

 Gathered feedback from Advising and Diane Coleman, drafted language regarding Alternative Grades

Spring 2022

 Presented findings to CCC+, voted on moving forward and conversion chart options for faculty vote

Impact

We see this as an equity issue and will recommend to the VPI office that we adopt a common percentage to GPA conversion chart.

Faculty who use "ungrading" or other alternative assessment practices which do not use points or percentages may choose to just use our common Transcript Legend.

Two conversion chart options

Option 1: Most used by Central faculty, correlates to UW (link)

Option 2: Most used by STEM-B faculty at Central, more flexible (link)

Important note:

- Students will still be able to request alternative grades such as W, NC, and I
- For more information on alternative grades and grade replacement, please check out our quide

Next steps

- Email sent Monday with link to vote! (Must be signed into Seattle Colleges account to access the Microsoft Form.)
- Voting open Monday Dec. 5 Friday Dec. 9
  - 1. Results will be shared with all faculty
  - 2. CCC+ will recommend to the VPI that the preferred conversion chart be adopted

Winter Enrollment

Compare Same Quarter from Prior Year: Quarterly FTES & Headcount by Quarter Start Date Source: CS_CTC_FTES_SUMMARY_OLD, vCAREER_FTE_SUMMARY, PS_TERM_TBL, YRQ-ctcLinkTERM

A note about Headcount (HC): data collection on this element started in Aug 2022 as part of the daily snapshot, so it won't be available for any quarters before summer/fall 2022.

A note about winter/spring/summer 2022: data was not recorded between Feb-Aug 2022, so there is a gap is observations here.

Kudos

- Kudos to Tona Khau and Casey Lawrence, new facilities leadership getting up to speed very quickly.
- Kudos to all facilities and maintenance staff for getting the campus ready for the start of inclement winter weather.
- Kudos to Security staff to keeping us safe and welcoming us at the front of the BE building each day.
- Kudos to Seattle Culinary Academy for providing us with delicious refreshments at our Holiday Party after our Town Hall!

Thank You

- Q & A
- This is being recorded and will be available on News Center as soon as it is processed.
- If you are on campus, join us for the Holiday Party at One World right after this!
